Garden Xylophone

Since it's Garden Week, we're going to have some fun making a Garden Xylophone – outdoor music play for kids!

Here's the supplies you will need: different sizes of empty glass jars, dirt, grass, rocks, water, sand, or mud – anything else you can find outside to fill your jars. You will also need two sticks.

After you fill your jars, you can use the sticks to play your garden xylophone. What kind of sounds will you create with your garden xylophone?

Here are a few other fun activities to try!

Simple Greenhouse

Take two clear cups and turn one upside down. Add some dirt and seeds to the other cup. Tape the two cups together and punch a few holes in the top. That's it! Watch your seeds grow!

Dandelion Playdough

I hope you have fun with all of these fun garden activities!!
